

PRIVACY STATEMENT

WHICH DATA

- * For the execution of agreements and for the vital interests of the organization, the shipping company keeps the following PERSONAL DATA: name, address, place of residence, telephone and email.
- * In addition, for passengers on board an international trip, we also keep PASSPORT DATA (passport number, gender, formal first names, country of issue, expiration date, date of birth, place of birth, nationality), as well as a next-of-kin telephone number.
- * We also ask people on board an international trip in advance if they have something special that we may pay attention to, for example vegetarian food, physical disability, or pill use. We call this the SPECIAL DATA.

WHO WILL SEE THIS DATA

- * PERSONAL DATA and PASSPORT DATA of passengers of an international voyage are provided to immigration authorities of the countries visited.
- * In the event of a calamity of the ship, the Dutch Coast Guard will provide the emergency services with the following information: name, next-of-kin telephone number, date of birth, nationality, passport number, and the SPECIAL DATA.
- * With this we fulfill legal obligations. Aside from this, we do not provide data to anyone.

DURATION OF DATA STORAGE

- * Your PERSONAL DATA, your invoices, your trips and your date of birth will be kept, to be able to approach you in the future, and for statistical purposes.
- * Your SPECIAL DATA will be deleted after your last trip, as will the other PASSPORT DATA (passport number, gender, formal first names, country of issue, expiry date, place of birth and nationality) and the next-of-kin telephone number. There is no need for us to keep those.

YOUR RIGHTS

- * You have different rights with regard to your data, such as the right of access, correction and deletion.
- * If you are not satisfied with the way we handle your privacy, please contact us; contact details can be found on every page of the website. You can also submit a complaint to the regulator, the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens (Dutch Data Protection Authority).
